20. In order for time to be considered official, barrier must work properly. If barrier hangs on animal, contestant must take a re-run.

21. If automatic barrier fails to work, and stock is brought back, contestant must take same animal over during or immediately after same performance.

22. In any timed event, if an animal escapes from arena, flag will be dropped and watches stopped.

A. A contestant will get animal back with lap and tap start, and time already spent will be added to time used in qualifying.

B. If time is not recorded, the decision of the flag judge will be final.

C. If rope is on animal when he escapes, contestant will get animal back lap and tap with rope on it in the chute.

23. If a contestant is injured at a rodeo, he may be held back at same rodeo until later in the go round. Consent of stock contractor and both judges is necessary. If stock has been drawn for him, he must take that animal when he does compete.
24. In rough stock events, with any disqualification, judge must throw flag immediately.
25. In the event of postponement of a performance, positions and stock will be re-drawn.
26. When a contestant calls for stock and animal falls completely down before crossing score line, a re-run may be given at judge's discretion. Barrier fouling contestant shall be the only other reason for re-run.
27. In case of barrier failure, contestant must take a re-run.
28. Neither barrier judge nor field flag judge may be changed during the course of an event, except due to sickness or injury. Barrier judge may appoint someone to watch barrier for the entire event of the performance he competes in.
29. If a judge cannot complete a rodeo due to sickness or injury, a new round will start and two (2) separate payoffs will be paid in rough stock events.
30. The decision of the judges, flagmen and timers who have been passed on by the Association, shall be final and no protest by the contestants will be permitted during an event.
31. The Board may disapprove judges for Association rodeos if such disapproval is based on a written complaint signed by at least five (5) members. Judges so disapproved must appear before the Board to contest the Boards decision.

SECRETARY AND RODEO OFFICE

1. MRCA members must pay delinquent entry fees to the MRCA or they will be fined and /or suspended. Rodeo contestants must pay delinquent entry fees before competing in another rodeo, after official notification by MRCA Secretary.
 - A. Any cowboy entering another cowboy shall be personally responsible for his entry fees. Secretary must be able to verify who has entered a cowboy to collect unpaid fees.

- B. A MRCA cowboy can enter himself and other card holders.
 - C. Secretary shall ask for card number on entries phoned in, if number is not given, entry may be refused.
 - D. Any secretary accepting entries is responsible for those entries. Secretaries cannot accept an entry in team roping leaving an open hole. Both names are to be given upon entering.
 - E. Members will have priority over non-members when entering rodeos. Non-members may be denied entry at the discretion of the Stock Contractor.
2. There must be a working emergency number with someone to answer from 8 a.m. to performance time on all days of the rodeo, for every MRCA rodeo. If not, a $25.00 fine will be imposed on the contractor and committee.
 3. Local entries must pay their entry fees before the draw for the performance in which they are entered to have any stock drawn for them, or they will be drawn out. Local entries must be informed of the dress code at the time they enter by the secretary.
 4. Arena secretary shall be required to have all contestants show paid up Association membership cards, or valid receipt of recent purchase of membership, at time of paying entry fees.
 - A. Memberships can be sold at rodeos at the rodeo secretary's option with one dollar ($1.00) office charge added.
 - B. Should contestant not have a current membership card, secretary is required to refuse entrance of said person until they can secure a paid-up membership.
 - C. Contestant's card number must be turned in with result sheets.
 5. All rodeos must have a rodeo headquarters phone. If books are open one day, someone must be present at the phone to take entries at all times.
 6. Rodeo results must be turned in to the MRCA Secretary within seven (7) days after last performance.
 7. Prize money will be mailed to contestants postmarked within seventy-two (72) hours of the final performance of a rodeo or secretary may be fined.

DRAWING STOCK OR POSITIONS

1. All stock in contest events must be drawn by the judges.
 - A. In drawing stock, there must be at least eight (8) or more in draw each time in each event except in calf roping and team roping. There must be at least (10) or more in draw each time in these two (2) events. There must be half as many animals in the draw as the greatest amount of contestants in one performance, including slack, with a maximum of 15 animals.
 - B. The first re-ride awarded will receive the first designated re-ride animal drawn. The second re-ride will go to the second re-ride animal drawn.
2. Stock in timed events must be drawn by flag judge for that event.
 - A. Flag judge cannot compete in the event he flags.
 - B. The people appointed to flag are the flag judges for those events regardless of who judges riding events and are the qualified men to deliver a decision.
3. Four (4) copies must be made of the draw, one (1) being a part of secretary's records, and one (1) for announcer.
 - A. Plastic poker chips must be used for drawing positions and for drawing stock.
 - B. Receptacle containing numbers must be shaken before each draw.
 - C. Drawing must be conducted on rodeo grounds so that any contestant may witness draw.
 - D. Judges shall draw stock within three (3) hours prior to performance.
 - E. All stock in first performance of a rodeo must remain for entire rodeo.
4. Stock for re-rides must be drawn before go-round and must be posted on judges sheets only. Feature animals may be held out of this draw, then returned to draw for the go-round. No more than two (2) feature animals are allowed to be held out of each performance of a go-round.
 - A. No draw animal may be used for any other reason until all paid contestants have competed. They will go to the re-ride pen. These animals are to be drawn with original re-rides.
 - B. Any animal drawn for a re-ride but not used in that go-round may be held out of draw for re-rides in following go-round along with feature animals, then will be returned go-round for go-round draw after re-rides have been drawn.

C. Re-rides will not be drawn before end of event in which re-ride is given. All men who have re-rides for event for that performance, will have their re-rides drawn at same time from all re-ride stock, including turned-out stock if necessary. An animal can be drawn for a re-ride only one (1) time in a go-round.

D. Once a horse is in the Bareback or Saddle Bronc event they must remain in that event for the entire rodeo.

5. Positions must be drawn within 48 hours after the books close.
6. Stock shall be drawn for each performance and posted prior to each rodeo. Order of slack may be chute run, if stock contractor wishes.
7. In case of misdraw or injured animal, go back to mistake and redraw from that point down.
8. Anyone turning out drawn stock, may be refused entry at that contractor's next rodeo, and next rodeo only.
9. Number of stock to be brought to Finals by each qualified contractor shall be determined by formula established by Board of Directors based on income to MRCA. Stock contractors shall furnish list of stock to go to Finals to event directors and both shall work together to determine Finals stock list. Directors shall pick stock to go in each round.
10. The order of events shall be posted alongside draw at all performances.
11. All slack must be run in order of the performance unless otherwise posted in the entry office.
12. All stock shall be drawn for at one time per each performance and be posted one hour before show.
13. Any person allowed to enter a rodeo after the books are closed, automatically is placed in the first position to run instead of last, with the exception of barrel racing which will be placed last. This is only after positions have been drawn.
14. If a rodeo secretary accepts the entry of someone appearing on the suspended list and that person then no shows at that rodeo, the stock charge collected with the no show fee will go into the general fund of the MRCA and not be paid to the stock contractor.
15. When entering a rodeo and a given performance is full, a waiting list will be formed on a first come, first served basis for that performance. When other performances are full the secretary will then use the waiting list. Contestants will be responsible for verifying whether his or her entry has been accepted.

16. Anyone who is entered and a position is drawn for that contestant must compete on that animal or at that position, unless authorized by the judges. If name of contestant is read by the announcer three times and the contestant is not in the arena or making an attempt within view of the judges the animal will be turned out or offered to the next contestant that has drawn the animal to compete at that time. The next contestant that has the animal drawn has the option to take the position or refuse and take the animal when their original position was drawn. If the animal is turned out, the contestant who had the animal or position drawn will receive a no time.

17. Trading of positions can be approved by the judge no less than 10 minutes prior to the beginning of a performance or slack in which the contestant is drawn. All trades must be made between contestants that have drawn the same animal to compete on or done before stock is drawn prior to the rodeo.

DRAWING OUT AND ENTRY FEE REFUND

1. There will be no drawing out after stock has been drawn for first performance, unless contestant has a release from both judges.
 - A. Any contestant who turns out stock with a doctors or vet release shall be fined, declared ineligible, or both if evidence shows he competed in another rodeo within seventy-two (72) hours after the performance for which the release was turned in. In the case of a vet release, the contestant may not compete on the same horse within seventy-two (72) hours.
 - B. Contestant must reimburse the MRCA for their entry fees, unless they have contacted the rodeo secretary before the payoff with release. Anyone with release who is on grounds prior to the draw, who does not notify secretary of his release, cannot use it to draw out.
 - C. All doctors releases must be dated and turned in to the Association Secretary within ten (10) days. Any release dated prior to entry may not be used to draw out of that rodeo.
 - D. The rodeo secretaries are to pull contestants who fail to show, from payoff, and send names to MRCA Secretary, who will collect fees. A charge will be assessed for the letters and labor at an amount set by the Board of Directors that will cover the current cost of postage.

E. No show fees collected will go into the MRCA general fund. Stock charge will also be collected and distributed to the stock contractor bi-annually.

F. In team roping, when one (1) member of the team doctor releases out of a rodeo his partner is also released from his fees or has the option to choose another partner. The contractor must be notified before the draw is made.

H. In team roping, when one (1) member of the team pays his entry fee at the rodeo, but the other team member is not paid, the total amount of the paid entry fee will be forwarded to the MRCA office with the results and not be included in the payoff. The other member will be responsible for paying his no-show amount. If the non-showing member forwards a valid doctor's release the other members fees will be refunded.

I. Vet Release- "Only" contestants in barrel race may vet release from a rodeo. Only three (3) vet releases may be used per points season.

2. No stock will be given until entry fees are paid. All entry fees must be paid one hour before performance if contestant is on grounds, or entry fee may be refused, at the discretion of the rodeo secretary.

3. Contractor and committee have the discretion to stop a performance because of adverse conditions.

A. Such termination may not take place during an event.

B. Entry fees will be refunded to those contestants who have not competed.

C. If a contestant is entered in other events in which he is unable to contest, the entry fee for those events are to be returned.

4. In the event of cancellation or postponement, contestant may draw out and entry fee will be refunded.

5. All no shows and turn outs will be required to pay entry fee, stock charge, judges fee, finals fee, jacket fee and day money.
